

Mobile Application Installation/Uninstallation Test Cases Report

Test case id	Test Scenario	Test Case Description	Expected results	Actual results	Pass/fail	Comments
1	Application Installation	To verify that application can be able to searched & install either on Play Store or apk files	Application should be able to search & install properly.
2		To verify that application can be installed successfully.	Application should be able to install successfully without any error.
3		To verify that application icon can be created into menu tray & on Home screen after installation.	Application should be able to create their icon properly into menu tray & on Home screen.
4		To verify that during installation, the version number presented to the user, must match with the version number specified during submission.	During installation, the version number presented to the user, should be same as with the verison number sepcified during submission.
5		To verify after successful installation, co-related files & folders can be able to created into Phone ROM.	After application installation, co-related files & folders should be able to create properly into the Phone ROM.
6	Application Uninstallation	To verify that application can be uninstalled successfully.	Application should be able to uninstall successfully without any error.
7		To navigate to where you would expect to see the application icon.The application icon can not longer be present on the device.	Application icon should not be present on the device where you would expect to see the application icon after successful uninstallation.
8		To verify data of contacts, messages and calendar applications to ensure that it is still presented in those applications related to the uninstall application.	Data of contacts, messages and calendar applications that data should be presented in those applications related to the uninstall application.
9		To verify after successful uninstallation, co-related files & folders can be able to removed from Phone ROM.	After application uninstallation, co-related files & folders should be able to remove properly from the Phone ROM.			